

Paul E. Sowa represents insurers and reinsurers in complex coverage disputes involving management and professional liability, healthcare, and commercial general liability (CGL) claims. An experienced litigator, Paul serves as trial monitoring counsel for insurers and reinsurers in high stakes cases involving their policyholders.

Before focusing his practice on insurance coverage, Paul handled commercial litigation, transactional, and real estate matters for small and mid-size businesses. He has litigated commercial matters ranging from contracts and torts to property and wage payment disputes.
