

R. Patrick Bedell is a partner whose practice focuses on advising insurance carriers on a variety of complex matters and representing them in commercial disputes in state and federal courts across the country. He has extensive experience analyzing and litigating claims involving products liability, municipal liability, general commercial liability, and professional liability. As a member of the firm's Opioid Coverage Task Force, Patrick is actively engaged in analyzing all insurance aspects of thousands of opioid-related suits against manufacturers, distributors, and retailers.

In 2021, Chambers USA recognized Patrick as "Up and Coming" in Illinois for his "respected and growing practice in the insurance space." In 2019, Patrick was selected by Chicago Daily Law Bulletin and Chicago Lawyer as one of the "40 Under Forty" Illinois attorneys to watch. In selecting Patrick for this honor, Chicago Daily Law Bulletin and Chicago Lawyer recognized Patrick for his "keen insight," "top-notch legal ability," and devotion to the practice of law. Patrick has also been named an "Emerging Lawyer," in Insurance, Insurance Coverage and Reinsurance Law and selected for inclusion in the annual Super Lawyers list as a "Super Lawyer" and "Rising Star" in Illinois. Patrick serves as co-chair of the firm's Associate Committee, which oversees the hiring and professional development of the firm's associates.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

Gage County v. Nebraska Intergovernmental Risk Management Association, Case No. CI 17-0339 (Lancaster County, NE) In a matter of first impression, obtained ruling for excess insurers that the date six wrongfully incarcerated individuals were first charged was the single date triggering their constitutional injuries, and that continuing constitutional wrongs into later insurance periods did not trigger new insurance for the $28.1 million malicious prosecution judgment.

Nooter Corporation v. Allianz Underwriters Ins. Co., 536 S.W.3d 251 (Mo. App. E.D. 2017) Successfully represented insurer in appeal to the Missouri Court of Appeals, which reversed trial court's rulings that insurer had a duty to defend and must pay defense expenses in addition to policy limits.

Westport Insurance Corporation v. City of Waukegan, et al., 2017 WL 4046343 (N.D. Ill.) Achieved summary judgment ruling that insurer had no duty to defend or indemnify with regard to $8 million claim involving wrongfully incarcerated inmate whose second conviction took place during insurer's policy period.

J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. v. Vigilant Ins. Co., Index No. 600979/09 (N.Y. Sup. Ct.) Successfully defended insurer in declaratory judgment action seeking coverage under Financial Institution E&O policy.
